

 safe zone - Any important parts of your design fall inside the 'Safe Zone', and that your design background fully extends through the Bleed Line

 Bleed - Is the area of artwork that is extended beyond the actual dimensions of the document. It is used to avoid strips of white paper showing on the edges of your print should the batch be misaligned when cut to size.

- We require at least 5mm bleed